

Council Sees Bids On Sewer

Cricket Clean-Up Brings Requests For More Manpower

The Cameron city council Tuesday opened bids for a sewerline to the non-white housing project, with the low bid of $5,900 submitted by the Graham Construction Co., Cameron.

The Cameron concern's bid was considerably lower than other bids, according to councilmen.

Councilmen also called for measures to keep the streets cleared of crickets. They asked that extra workmen be added if necessary to clean downtown streets after the pests' nightly invasions.

Budget Study

They continued further study of the proposed budget due for a final public hearing 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at City Hall.

In other action they cut City Judge Roy Baskin's salary from $100 to $35 a month.

Councilmen also are considering a new police car to replace the 1957 model now in use. Councilmen said the present vehicle is costing the city a heavy monthly operation expense.

Police Car Patrol

Also under advisement, according to councilmen, is the replacement of a night watchmen with police car patrol at night.

The council will meet Tuesday night in a regular meeting to clear final budget hurdles before the 1957-58 budget is approved. It will go into effect October 1.

Included in the budget is $12,500 for the widening project through Cameron on US 77 and SH 36.

Nine In One Family Attend City Schools

When school started for the O. L. White family last week, not one, not three, but nine youngsters were off to classes from the White household.

Supt. Wiley Loughmiller said that the family furnished the largest number of children from one home in the Cameron school system.

But the nine youngsters still leave one little sister home each morning. Four-year-old Katherine will have to wait a couple more years before she can join her brothers and sisters on their way to classes.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. White, 706 Polk, parents of the five girls and five boys, moved to Cameron three months ago from Kountz, Texas.

He operates an upholstery business at 706 W. Sixth.

Loughmiller told The Herald that the children were well adjusted to their new school homes. Seven attend classes at Ada Henderson and Ben Milam while Eugene and Robert are freshmen at Yoe High School.

The family includes triplets Horace, Doris and Norris. Other White children are Ted, Marion, Sarah, Leona, Eugene and Robert.

They attend every grade in school from first to ninth except fifth, sixth and eighth.

"The material aid given by Cameron people is testimonial of their desire to make the lives of many veterans more liveable, but the DAV feels that the sympathetic thought behind the gift was of even greater worth," Huntsman continued.

Workers in the one-day drive were Barbara Woodum, Jane Monroe, Jolene Weid, Sandra Fuller, Linda Angell, Carol Ann Crook and Kay Bridges.

Quarterback Club Elects Officers, Endorses Train

The Cameron Quarterback Club Monday night elected new officers and joined with Cameron Jaycees in boosting the Brenham football train.

Calvin Markham was elected president for the coming year, succeeding Bob Nelson.

Other new officers are vice-president, Dr. Robert M. Tinsworth, and secretary-treasurer, Rube Johnson.

Twenty-five members heard Jaycee President Don Humble appeal for Quarterback Club aid in boosting the Brenham football train Friday, September 20.

The group voted to assist in the sale of tickets for the game. President Calvin Markham said that tickets may be obtained from members of the club. Tickets are $2 for adults and $1 for children under 12.

Humble told the group that the YHS band already has planned to make the train trip to Brenham, 65 miles away.

In other action the club planned a membership drive this fall for the weekly Monday meetings where movies of Yoeman football games are shown.

Coach Leo Jackson and his assistant mentors, Jim Speer and Murphy Webster, told the group about the football prospects of the 1957 Yoemen who have 16 lettermen returning this fall.

Cameron Firemen Elect Officers

The Cameron Volunteer Firemen's Association elected new officers Monday night as Edwin Kohutek succeeded Henry Michalka as president.

Michalka automatically became vice-president, according to John Andres, who was elected secretary-treasurer.

Other officers are: physician, Dr. C. G. Swift; chaplain, the Rev. Alfred Kallus; and mascot, Mike Mikula.

Voted to the board of directors for the 1957-58 year were: William C. Black, Joe Humplik, Thomas Kirk, David Perkins, John A. Smith and Dean White.

The group met at the fire station for the election of officers.

Golden Wedding Day

September 1 was a special day for a pioneer couple in Minerva. Mr. and Mrs. David F. Robinson celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at their home. The Milam County town was named after Mrs. Robinson's maternal grandmother.

The couple was married in Minerva Sept. 4, 1907. Three of the golden anniversary guests from Cameron, Mr. J. S. Hubert and Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Terry, were present at the wedding 50 years ago.

An open house honoring the couple was held by Robinson's children.

A highlight of the day was a three-tier wedding cake served by Mrs. David Robinson, Jr., Mrs. Thomas Robinson, Mrs. Esther Fuhberg and Mrs. Laura Sue Trotter. Mrs. Marie Hicks, a daughter, directed activities while Miss Caroline Trotter and Miss Helen Hicks had charge of the guest book.

Robinson came to Texas in 1898.

Rally-Bonfire Set

Jaycees Start Sale Of Brenham Tickets

Brenham football train tickets went on sale this week through the Cameron Jaycee and Quarterback Clubs, Don Humble, Jaycee president, said today.

In a Monday meeting, Jaycees heard final reports on the project from Ticket Chairman Dana Kestenbaum and Project Chairman Milton Brown.

The Quarterback Club Monday night endorsed the Brenham train scheduled for September 20 and started the sale of tickets along with Jaycees.

Jaycees also rounded out plans for the pre-Brenham game football rally with plans for a bonfire and parade through Cameron that would be climaxed with a pep rally on Lawless Green.

School Boosting Project

School officials promised full support in boosting the rally and parade. The YHS band, football team and coaches and units of the city fire and police department are expected to join in the parade.

The parade will begin at the courthouse at 6:30 p.m. Thursday, September 19 and end at Lawless Green where a huge bonfire-rally will be staged.

The student body will join in the rally, according to Humble. The rally will include speeches by team captains, coaches and cheerleaders led by the school cheer leaders.

The train will leave the Santa Fe Station at Cameron at 6 p.m. Friday, September 20 and arrive in Brenham at 7:20 p.m., Humble said.

Buses will take Cameron fans to the field. They will be furnished by the Brenham school district.

Humble said the train tickets will cost $2 for adults and $1 for children under 12. All Jaycees and Quarterback members have them for sale, he said.

He said that the trip is less expensive by train and much safer. Roads between Cameron and Brenham are either being repaired or are dangerously narrow, he said.

After the game, the train will return to Cameron at 10:20 and arrive here at 11:50.

Ticket headquarters in downtown Cameron is at Childress Insurance Agency, Kestenbaum said. Jaycees having tickets for sale are: Jimmy Wiggs, Humble, Richard Williams, Gus Evans, Brown, Bill Crockett, N. L. Caperton, Bill Black and James Kahler.

Tickets Prices

Price of the tickets includes $1.75 for the tickets and 13 cents tax, Humble continued. Children's tickets are $1. Children under five can ride free.

We will hold the train until 6 p.m. here, Humble said, so that employees and store owners can make the trip. Sandwiches and soft drinks will be available on the train.

The rally and football train have the endorsement of school officials who a month ago voted to send the 100-piece YHS band on the Brenham train.

The football team will go by bus, Humble said, since they must be in Brenham ahead of the train's arrival time.

Arrangements are pending to have game tickets available for purchase on the train to avoid delay before the 8 p.m. kickoff.

8 p.m. Kickoff To Renew Battle Of Milam Teams

The Cameron Yoemen Friday night will clash with the Rockdale Tigers for the traditional bell trophy that goes on the line whenever the two teams meet.

Kickoff time is 8 p.m. at Yoe Field.

It will be the first meeting for the two Milam County schools since 1955.

Coach Leo Jackson says his charges will be in top notch physical shape with all hands ready for YHS's season opener.

Yoemen will don new maroon and gray game uniforms, Jackson says.

Giddings Wins, 7-0

In the Rockdale camp, Coach Wannie Miller's Tigers are licking their wounds after a tough 7-0 loss to powerful Giddings last Friday night.

He says the Rockdale crew will be primed for the Yoeman contest.

Coaches Murphy Webster and Jim Speer guided their backs and linemen through a tough final scrimmage session Wednesday night prior to a scheduled lighter session today.

School officials expect the largest crowd of the season for the Cameron opener. The Yoemen are rated co-favorites to win 9-AAA this year along with Waco University High and Stephenville.

Three-A schools over the state will open grid competition Friday.

2 Rockdale Boys Tough

Cameron scouts named two Rockdale players that will give the Yoemen real trouble in tomorrow night's game. They are QB Johnny Timmerman and tackle Hal Stanislaw, both rugged performers against Giddings.

Jackson says that Cameron backs have been drilling on ball handling to reduce early season fumbles.

"The team is up for the game", Jackson told The Herald.

Rockdale's starting lineup will be six pounds lighter per man than Cameron's Yoemen who will field an all-veteran backfield and a veteran-spotted line.

Cameron will average 169 pounds while Rockdale will tip the scale average at 163.

Jackson said that either George Zerosky or Arthur Marak will start at left end for Cameron. The other positions are set.

The lineups are:

SAVING

YOUR SOIL

Approximately five miles of large channel type terraces and one-half mile of diversion terraces are being constructed by William A. Lawler on his farm two miles south of Summers Hill.

Lawler is a cooperator with the Little River-San Gabriel Soil Conservation District. This work is being carried out as a part of the conservation plan he had previously developed under the district program.

Soil Conservation Service personnel stationed at Bartlett, are providing layout, supervision of construction, and checking for completion assistance in connection with terrace systems.

Protection against damage from sheet and gully erosion on eighty acres of cropland will be realized through the installation of these practices. They will be further supplemented in the matter of erosion control with the conservation practices of contour farming, crop residue utilization, broadcast crop, and cover crop acreages. An annual maintenance program for the terraces is planned in order to keep them at maximum operation efficiency.

Irrigation Device Tested

Farmers may someday tell when their crops need irrigating by using a simple electrical device tested recently by the USDA. It measures moisture stress as an indicator of a plant's moisture needs. Research is continuing on this device.

Turkeys Plentiful

Turkeys will be the big food value in meat departments for the third successive month the Agricultural Marketing Service reports, in announcing its September plentiful foods list. Bartlett pears are a co-feature on the list.

Conservation Status To Influence Elm Creek Project Starting Date

Amount of conservation planned for the land and percentage of land with developed conservation plans are two of the factors that will determine how soon the Elm Creek Flood Prevention Project in Central Texas SCD will begin.

An estimated 57,000 acres of the Elm Creek Watershed are in Milam County.

The SCS personnel at Cameron report that owners of approximately 31,000 acres in this part of the watershed are co-operators with Central Texas SCD, and have developed conservation plans for their land.

Approximately 40,000 acres of land out of the 57,000 acres in the county are now receiving the conservation treatment needed.

Since the Milam County part of the watershed is located at the lower end of the drainage area, it will get fewer control structures, but will gain more in flood prevention.

Tentative plans call for four dams in the county. They will be located on Lipan Creek, Cottonwood Creek, Cow Creek and Mustang Branch. When the project is completed, all of the Elm Creek bottomland will be free from the severe overflow hazard, and irrigation water may be made available where feasible.

Conservationists working throughout the watershed feel this project has an excellent chance for top priority because of the interest of people in the watershed and the high percentage of conservation treatment on the land.

Auction Consigns 385 Head Cattle In Thursday Sale

The Cameron Livestock Auction consigned 385 cattle and one sheep last Thursday to 50 buyers, according to livestock officials.

Number of sellers reported was 113.

Officials reported a decline in transactions that was general throughout the Texas livestock market last week.

Good cows, calves and replacement-type cows were still selling in good demand, they said, with prices about par with those last week.

Cotton and corn harvest kept many cattle sellers in the fields, officials said, accounting for the lower number of consignments in the Thursday market.

Planning Improves Farm Life

Goals, plans and records help farm and home development families get more family living satisfactions than where no goals are established and no plans made. Farm record books can be a big help in family planning and decision making.

Mesquite wood ground into a meal is a source of bulk in rations for cattle when other roughages are scarce and relatively high in price. Steers fed a mesquite meal made a higher net profit than those fed cottonseed hull ration.

Improper Handling Costs

Thousands of dollars are lost annually by poultrymen and egg handlers because of quality loss due to improper handling of eggs from the time they are laid until consumers use them. Heat, age, and humidity are the three biggest enemies, says F. Z. Beaublossom, extension poultry marketing specialist.

Open House A Success

The Cameron Parent-Teachers Association had a fine turnout Thursday night at the Yoe High School tennis courts with many parents and visitors on hand. The turnout shows much more than taken interest in Cameron schools. The school principals introduced the teachers and the YHS band played a number of selections to make the evening enjoyable.

We hope that parental enthusiasm continues to run high throughout the year for P-T-A activities. Schools here, schools everywhere need parental interest in their activities. That interest promotes a better understanding of classroom activities and the teaching problems that arise from them.

How can parents really understand why their children do or do not have problems if they never see the school system in operation and the teachers in their classrooms and out?

More understanding and better school procedures naturally develop from active parental interest in the schools. Cameron's P-T-A is the place to develop that understanding.

THE LITTLE RIVER PHILOSOPHER

Sage Questions Proposal
To Total Necessary Farmers

By J. A.

The Little River Philosopher probably is unduly alarmed about the matter he's discussing this week, but it wasn't that it'd be something else.

I've always felt that while nobody in Washington can solve the farm problem, it didn't hurt to have them try. It's nice to have them talking about it, it's comfortable to know you're not forgotten, but now I've changed my mind. You can run this thing into the ground.

For instance, I was reading in a newspaper last night which somebody had used to stuff around a set of teacups my wife got through the mail from some of her kinfolks — only three of 'em were cracked, probably before they were packed anyway — where a committee in Washington is planning on making a survey to determine how many farmers this country needs. They've got the idea there may be entirely too many of us and if so maybe a good many ought to quit and move to town and try something else.

In the future, I will appreciate Washington letting the farm problem slide awhile. Get your mind off us farmers and give some heavy thought to juvenile delinquents, guided missiles, the Russians, or something else.

I can see some expert, totaling up the number of acres this country has, the amount of food it needs, and the number of farmers needed to produce it, and coming out with the announcement we're going to have a farmer allotment for 1958.

I can see the official-looking letter turning up in the mailbox now "Based on your five-year history of production, it has been found you are unnecessary and your name has been removed from the list of farmers in this county. Severe penalties for violating this order will be enforced."

You can see what this would do to me, and I think if I tried right hard I could name a few others in this vicinity.

Furthermore, if they found out this country has more farmers than it needs, what's to keep them from finding out its got more filling stations than it needs? Or more grocery stores? Or more women?

It may be true that 20 per cent of the farmers could quit and move to town and the country would still be well-fed and well-clothed and Sec. Benson would still have a surplus to worry about, but I have a notion you could shut down 20 per cent of the filling stations and nobody'd have to go without gas, or even wait in line. Yet they're still putting 'em up in cities, every time they find a vacant corner lot. And it's possible, with a fifth less Congressmen, we still might get just as many laws turned out.

Let's drop this whole thing.

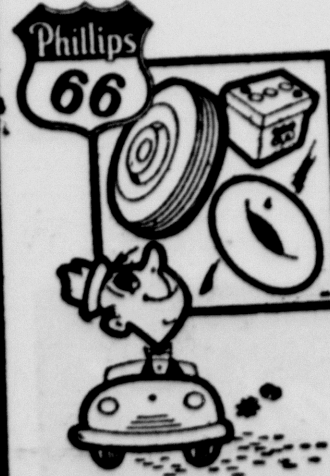

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Ben Jack Cage Gets Requests For ICT Info

By Vern Sanford

Texas Press Association
AUSTIN — Ben Jack Cage has more invitations than a pretty girl with a rich papa.

Cage's "dates" are with some half-dozen groups who want to know what caused ICT Insurance Co. to go under with multi-million-dollar losses. Cage was ICT manager until a year before its collapse.

After a grand jury session and lie detector test in Dallas, Cage moved to Austin. At the head of the line of questioners here is the Travis County grand jury. Other questioners include:

1. House general investigating committee.
2. Senate general investigating committee.
3. Renne Allred, attorney for the state liquidator, handling what remains of ICT.
4. Federal agents — from the postal inspection service and Securities Exchange Commission.

GOVERNOR

SOUNDS OUT SOLONS
Gov. Price Daniel has asked legislators for a "frank expression of their attitudes toward the proposed special session."

In an individual letter to each member, the governor outlined the session goals: (1) a lobby registration bill, (2) a bill requiring registration to those who represent others before state agencies, (3) a bill setting up a study on how to prevent spread of crime and (4) legislation to develop a state master water plan.

Now new taxes will be needed to finance any of these projects, or the session itself, the governor's letter contended.

Best guesses are that, barring stringent opposition from the lawmakers themselves, the session will be called for Oct. 15.

NAMED TO TAX COMMISSION

Three business experts from over the state will join with lawmakers in making a thorough study of the state and local tax structure.

Named by Governor Daniel to the Texas Tax Study Commission are Dr. John R. Stockton, Austin, director of the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research; John McKee of Dallas, executive in the Ford Motor Co.'s Dallas plant; Hugh Loewenstein Sr., Amarillo real estate dealer.

Three senators and three representatives also will serve on the Commission.

TOGETHER

Every experience means more when it is shared. When father, mother and children go to church together they are sharing a beautiful experience. When they sing the songs of the gospel, read the Scripture, listen to the sermon, unite in prayer, they are adding to the joy of being together. When they open their hearts to God and pledge allegiance to Him, family life is strengthened. The "togetherness" reaches out to include fellowship with others.

Young people who grow up in the Church, who have a truly Christian home, are blessed with a tremendous advantage. They have learned to work and live with other people for the glory of God and the advancement of His cause. There is strength in the very thought of uniting in work and worship.

Together—what a difference it makes! Does your family go to Church together?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Double Ring Ceremony Read For Glenda Sue Bales, Thomas Dusek

Miss Glenda Sue Bales became the bride of Mr. Thomas Clayton Dusek, September 1st at the home of her parents in Dallas. The Rev. Glenn W. Bales, father of the bride, officiated at the double ring ceremony after music by Mrs. Otto Hilbrich, Jr. and Mr. Bob Pierce who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer".

Rev. and Mrs. Glenn W. Bales of 1319 Lynn Haven, Dallas are the parents of the bride. The groom is the son of Mrs. Joe Dusek of Cameron.

Given in marriage by her brother, Tommy G. Bales, the bride wore a demi-length gown of imported Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over taffeta. Designed with a scalloped lace yoke with brief sleeves and matching lace mitts, the bodice was sprinkled with sequins and pearls. The voluminous skirt of tulle over taffeta was accented with a scalloped lace panel down the front of her gown. Her shoulder length veil of im-

Colburn-Hendee Wedding Plans Revealed At Announcement Tea

About 200 friends called at the home of Mrs. John B. Henderson, 410 West Fourth Street, on Saturday from 4:30 to 6:30 when Mrs. Albert W. McCullin and Mrs. Henderson honored Miss Jimmie Rae Colburn with a tea.

Mrs. McCullin and Mrs. Henderson greeted the guests at the door and presented them to Miss Colburn and her mother, Mrs. Herbert Colburn. The honoree wore a dress of white net and lace with fitted bodice and very bouffant skirt. She wore a corsage of split blue carnations. Mrs. Colburn chose a cocktail length pink lace dress.

Miss Jane Henderson invited the guests to register at an antique marble top table at the end of the hall. Misses Martha Ann Collins and Carol Ann Sanders presided at the register. A pair of dainty angel figurines and an arrangement of pale pink altheas decorated the table.

Decorating the entrance hall was a lovely arrangement of double pink hibiscus, cleome and queen's crown, flanked by decorative pink candles in silver candle holders.

The twin mantles in the living room held arrangements of pink althea, cleome and queen's crown and the fireplace was banked with fern.

Music for the tea hours was furnished by Mrs. Hilliard Thomas, Mrs. C. W. Bradbury, Mrs. Ernest Davis and Miss Kay Camp. Guests were invited into the dining room by Mrs. W. H. Garner and Mrs. J. H. Asher. Also assisting with hospitality in the living room were Mrs. Franklin Dusek, Mrs. Carroll Green and Mrs. John C. Martin.

La Nell Fuchs M. T. Wright Wed

Miss Marian La Nell Fuchs and Milton Turner Wright, Jr., exchanged nuptial vows in a double ring ceremony recently at the Hope Lutheran Church in Buckholts.

The Rev. J. A. Pietsch officiated before an altar banked with greenery intermingled with branched candelabra holding cathedral tapers. Baskets of white gladiolus were placed at either side of the altar.

The bride, a graduate of Buckholts high school and Temple Junior College, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Fuchs, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Wright Sr., graduated from Rogers high school and the U. S. Navy Service School as an aviation electrician at Jacksonville, Florida.

Mrs. J. A. Pietsch, Mr. Max McClaren and Miss Billie Nell Johnson furnished traditional wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of Alencon lace and tulle. The sweetheart neckline of the basque lace bodice was accented with a tulle yoke banded at the neck with narrow alencon applique lace. An overlay of lace to the hipline marked the full pleated tulle skirt. Elbow length lace mitts complemented the brief sleeves.

Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a half hat studded with seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried a white Bible, a gift of the groom, topped with an orchid encircled with split carnations.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Ernest Fuchs, III, of Holland, sister-in-law of the bride. Miss Carol Kristinek of Temple and Miss Kathryn Svetlik, cousin of the bride, served as bridesmaids.

The matron of honor wore a ballerina length dress of orchid embroidered polished cotton, styled with a long torso and full skirt with back bow accent and matching hat and mitts. The bridesmaids dresses in ice pink were styled identically to that worn by the matron of honor.

Cathy Lange, of Texas City, dressed in ice blue embroidered organdy with velvet cummerbund, served as flower girl.

Ernest Fuchs III, brother of the bride, was best man. Groomsmen were Denson Fuchs and Everett Wright, brother of the groom.

Dwight Fuchs and Jerry Wright lighted the candles. Ernest Alfred Fuchs, nephew of the bride served as ringbearer.

The brides mother chose for her daughters wedding a navy ensemble with navy and white accessories. The bridegrooms mother wore a dress of brown with beige and white accessories. Both had white carnation corsages.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the home of the brides parents.

The brides table was laid with a pink linen cloth with lace overlay and centered with the brides bouquet. The three tiered wedding cake, embossed with pink roses and wedding bells and topped with the traditional bride and groom, and the crystal punch bowl were placed at opposite ends of the table.

Miss Frances Vogelsang of Rosebud registered the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Turner Wright, Jr.

Misses Betsy Vogelsang of Waco and Rose Matyastik of Austin served the cake and punch.

Also included in the houseparty were Misses Elwanda Holland and Mary Jane Vogelsang of Cameron.

For the wedding trip the bride chose a charcoal gray dress with matching balero trimmed in white. Her accessories were white and black. She wore the orchid from her bouquet.

The couple will be at home at NAS Moffit Field, California.

Mrs. Arledge, Mrs. Willie Honor Bride-Elect Mary Lee Bartlett

Mrs. Coy C. Arledge and Mrs. A. E. Willie entertained with a gift tea from 3 to 4 p.m. Saturday and a tea between the hours of 4 and 6 p.m., honoring Miss Mary Lee Bartlett, bride-elect of Lester Lankford, Jr.

Forming the receiving line were the hostesses, Mrs. Arledge, Mrs. Willie the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Lee Bartlett, and the honoree.

Misses Evelyn Glaser and Bernice Fischer of Buckholts registered the 114 guests at a small desk decorated with a miniature bride and groom standing in a heart shaped arrangement.

The refreshment table, covered with a lace cloth, was centered with an arrangement of pink fugi mums. Appointments of silver and gold were used. The napkins were inscribed in silver "Mary Lee and Les - September 14th".

The plate favors were hand-made mint calla lilies. Mrs. Charles Richards of Waco served white cake squares decorated with pink rambling rosebuds, while Mrs. Bob Adams of Bryan presided at the punch service. Salted nuts and party mints completed the refreshments.

Other members of the houseparty were Mrs. Buck Angell, Mrs. Dallas Duncan, Rockdale, Mrs. T. A. Green, Longview, Mrs. Hayden Lawrence, Mrs. Ray Thompson and Miss Frances Thompson. Each wore a corsage of white carnations, gifts of the hostesses.

Draft Call Awaits

One In October, Board Announces

The Milam County induction call for October is for one man for induction on October 23, according to the Milam County draft board officials.

Of importance to young men entering college this fall, is the fact that the Selective Service College Qualification Tests for the 1957-58 school year will be limited to one, instead of three per year as in the past. Bulletins of information for this year's test have not yet been received. However, any student who desires more information regarding the test may contact the board a little later on.

The files of young men now deferred as college students will be reviewed the latter part of September to determine whether or not the student is (1) actually attending classes (2) that he is a full time student and (3) that his work is satisfactory.

County Agent Moore Recommends Fertilizer To Rot Maize Stubble

By J. D. Moore, County Agent

Adding fertilizer to maize stubble will help rot the roots and stalks quicker. 100 pounds of Ammonium Sulphate (Nitrogen) added to the stubble after the stalks have been shredded, then plow the stubble good to turn under the stalks along with the fertilizer and top soil.

Flat breaking to turn the material would be better than bedding. What you would be doing is this: Certain soil bacteria are necessary to decompose plant residue in the field. Conditions necessary for these bacteria to do good work in decomposing stalks are: moisture, temperature, food and air.

Of course, moisture will likely be present in sufficient amount provided the stalks are plowed under to a depth of 4 to 6 inches.

Temperature is more important than the average farmer thinks. Soil bacteria are not active when the soil temperature drops below 55 degrees. For this reason, fall plowing has an advantage in order to get decomposition before mid-winter sets in.

Food is where the added fertilizer comes in. The added nitrogen will help furnish food for the soil bacteria that help decompose the stalks as well as add nitrogen back to the soil to be used by crops planted on the land next year.

Air will be no problem since the supply of air will be sufficient in the soil for this purpose.

The fertilizer will not deteriorate by applying it on the surface ahead of the plow if you plow it under the same week the fertilizer is applied.

Questions Answered

What is surface water? What is ground water? Is it lawful to use them for irrigation? If so, how much of this water can you use? Is a permit necessary?

These questions and others of similar nature are being asked by farmers relative to an individual's rights to use surface or ground waters for irrigation.

Robert Thurmond, extension agricultural engineer, has prepared two bulletins, MP-214, "Questions And Answers On Ground Water Laws In Texas For Irrigation," and MP-215 "Questions And Answers On Rights In Surface Water For Irrigation."

Persons interested in this subject will find these bulletins very helpful and informative. They

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks for the kindness that was expressed at the death of our beloved one.

We also wish to especially thank those who sent flowers, food and messages of condolence at the time of our loss.

The Family of may be obtained from the County Agents office in Cameron.

Fall Crops

Even though we have had rains in parts of the county, it is questionable whether oats, rye and barley should be sown before the last week in September or the first part of October for fall grazing.

Oats that were dry sown would stand a better chance than those sown now. The operation of seed bed preparation and planting will disturb the soil causing it to dry out unless more rain follows. Then too, we could have some more hot weather during September. Oats, rye and barley are cool season plants and do not stand hot thdry weather while plants are small.

Varieties Recommended

New Nortex stood up best under rust conditions this past year, and do well here. Victor grain, Alamo and Fulgrain oats furnish more grazing early.

Wheat furnished good grazing this past winter on well managed soil with fertilizer added. Quannah is the variety recommended locally.

Barley - Cordova is recommended locally. Goliah is a variety that furnishes a lot of grazing but weather.
